

A Welcome From Helen

In Good Faith Foundation is a place of expert help. We respect your needs and respond with confidentiality. We believe you and support your values and personal beliefs.

You may be a survivor of abuses by clergy, religious or lay church personnel. These betrayals can cause a lifetime of pain and suffering and bring turmoil to faith in religion. These abuses can also cause deep harm to families, partners, children, parents and members of faith communities and organisations.

Religious institutions can fail to provide adequate safety and care to their members. You may have experienced harm done to church members or professionals in church organisations such as teachers. You may feel isolated or disempowered in these complex situations. Our services are independent and focus on connecting you to recovery.

Whatever your situation or lifetime experiences, we applaud your courage.
